

Sydney Women's Domestic Violence Court Advocacy Service

Safety Action Meeting Coordinator

Selection Criteria

1. Relevant tertiary qualifications such as in the areas of law or social work or equivalent experience and a demonstrated understanding of the dynamics, complexities and legal and social welfare consequences of domestic violence;
2. Demonstrated understanding of the criminal justice response to domestic violence including Apprehended Domestic Violence Order (ADVO) applications and criminal prosecutions and related legal matters such as family law, care and protection, migration and victim's compensation issues;
3. Demonstrated ability to establish and maintain professional working relationships with key stakeholders and relevant agency personnel;
4. Demonstrated understanding of the particular needs of clients from diverse communities, especially Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander and Multicultural clients and an ability to work effectively with support services for victims with specific needs;
5. Ability to deliver services in accordance with the WDVCAS Service Agreement, WDVCA Principles, Policies and Standards and operational documents;
6. Excellent communication skills, particularly in negotiation, advocacy and conflict resolution;
7. High-level organisational, administrative, IT and management skills; and
8. Ability to develop and implement service delivery strategies aimed at ensuring the relevance, accessibility and responsiveness of Local Coordination Point services to a diverse range of women and children.